— FOREWORD —

These individual and group scenes have been assembled to stimulate thinking and to give a view of the kinds of cultural experiences to which the student body is exposed. These experiences have become known through our music groups, our speech and drama, our health and physical education activities, our extracurricular clubs and our art classes.

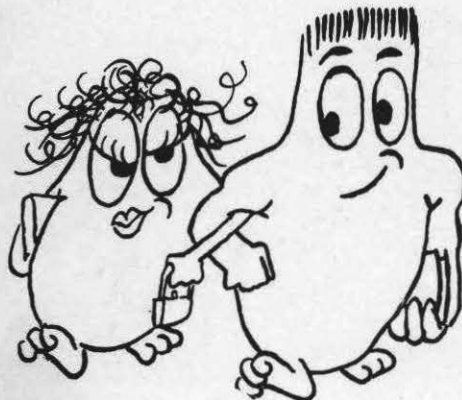

The yearbook staff, therefore, sincerely hopes that this pictorial exposure to the cultural life on the campus will serve as a basis for enjoyment and appreciation in later years and will serve as a challenge to us to aspire for greater accomplishments.

DEDICATION

Mr. Walter T. Locke

This issue of THE HORNET is gratefully dedicated to Mr. Walter T. Locke whose enthusiastic support in presenting a recital, helped to finance our project thus making the publication of this yearbook possible.

ALMA MATER

Dearest Alma Mater, the source of our joy,
We will strive to serve thee from near and far;
With our pledge sincerely, and our love for thee,
Halls of Fame shall bear thy name, dear ole RJC.

Blessed are thy stately walls, and thy efforts brave,
Sons and daughters answer to thy beckoning call;
Giving of our loyalty and our faith eternally,
Deeds of truth shall e'er grace thee, dear ole RJC.

Noble Alma Mater, in thy Gold and Green,
May we Ne'er forget thy council, nor thy pains of birth,
Rugged spirit ever present dedicated e'er to thee,
Halls of Fame shall bear thy name, dear ole RJC.

ACTIVITIES

A MESSAGE FROM THE S.G.A.

Greetings from the Student Government Association, to the faculty, the community, and the student body --

Knowledge, in truth, is the great sun in firmament.

Life and power are scattered with all its beams.

Daniel Webster

As freshmen, greater heights are to be achieved by those who look to the future; for to look back is to lose sight on a perspective.

As sophomores, you have passed another test, but you have not achieved the final goal; that is before you. Go forward to new horizons, for there are frontiers yet to be opened.

Elton Butler, President S.G.A.

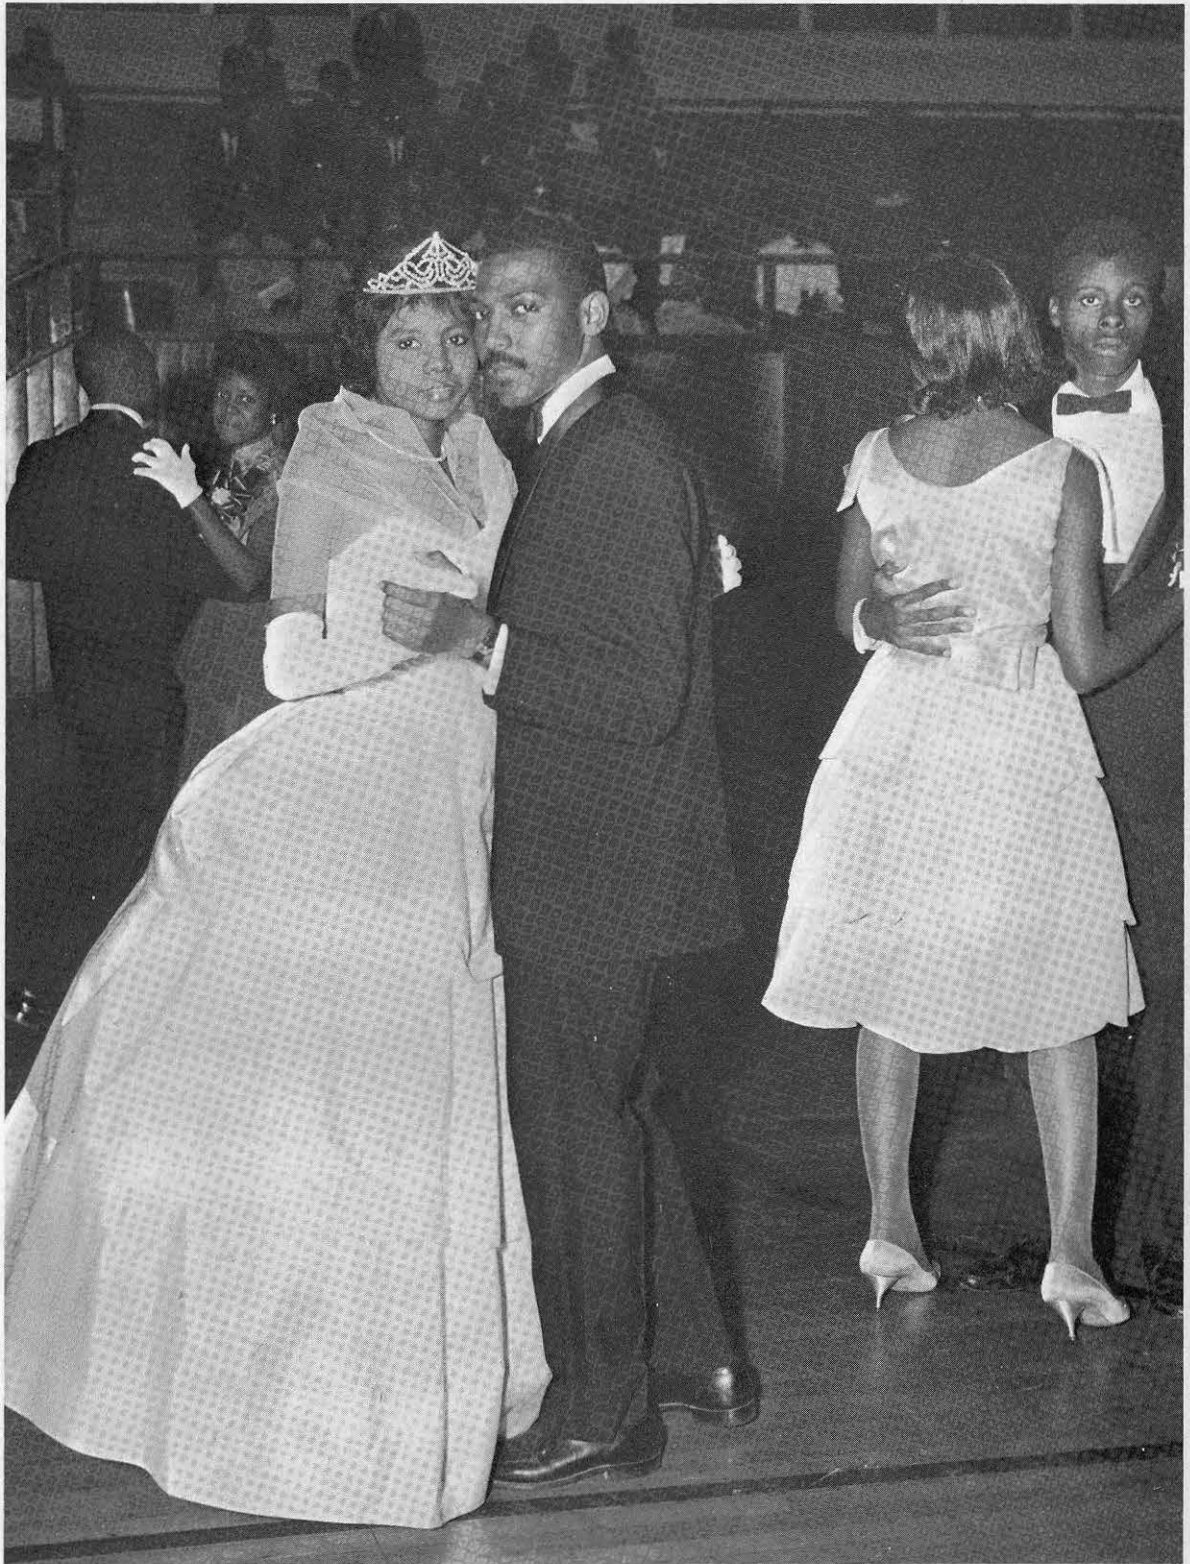

MISS RJC LENA PRICE

ADMINISTRATION

It is with pleasure and thanks that we greet you through this another issue of THE HORNET.

Again, you have recorded, through pictures and words, the program of Roosevelt Junior College. We thank you for your contributions to the program. We trust that in the years ahead you will have no moments of deep regret as the results of your failing to use your time wisely, apply yourselves diligently, or take advantage of the opportunities which presented themselves to you.

May you, as you move into furthering your educations or seeking gainful employment, be mindful of your responsibilities to your God, your fellow-man and yourselves.

May God's blessings be with you and yours.

Sincerely,

Britton G. Sayles

Britton G. Sayles

I wish to extend congratulations to members of the yearbook staff and to the graduating class of 1963.

The future is bright for those who work for self-improvement and a life of service. May you share in the joys of a rich tomorrow.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink that reads "P. W. Butler". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.

1962-63 Headlines and Bylines

"RJC'S FIRST GRADUATES COMPLETE 4 YEAR COLLEGE"

Eleven of the 22 members of the first graduating class of RJC have completed their education at four year institutions. We are proud to have some of them presently employed and others doing substitute work in the Palm Beach area.

All of the graduates who went away to school were accepted as juniors, and all of those completed their work in the required two years. Several of them -- our honor students at RJC -- maintained their scholastic honor record, became members of honor societies and finished college with "Greater and Greatest Distinctions."

"Lovely Lena Price Crowned Miss RJC"

As queenly as the crown was Miss Lena Price as she was honored in a glittering, matchless ceremony on Friday night, December 14. Miss Price became the fifth queen in the history of the school. She was crowned by RJC's first reigning queen, Mrs. Maxine Mitchell, who went on to graduate at Bethune-Cookman College.

Miss Price wore a gorgeously beautiful white, taffeta, three-tiered gown, matched only by her charm and grace as she accepted the challenge of her glittering crown.

The student body and the various interest groups showed their warm appreciation and honor to Miss Price by showering her with token gifts, and entertaining her with song, music, dancing and poetry. The orchestra -- Donald Scott -- played soft music throughout coronation exercises and honored the queen by playing a lovely waltz.

New Buildings and Facilities

The new classrooms, the language laboratory, the teachers' offices, student lounge and chemistry laboratory are recent additions just completed on the Roosevelt Junior College Campus. The student body is anxiously waiting to begin using the new facilities that add much beauty and charm. They are especially happy about the possible relocation of the student lounge in a larger room which will accommodate a greater number of students seeking brief periods of relaxation during the busy day's schedule.

SNEA MEMBERS ATTEND STATE MEETING

Five members of the RJC Brewer-St. Clair Chapter of the Student National Education Association attended the state meeting in Miami Friday, March 16. There were 60 students present representing chapters from Florida Normal, Bethune-Cookman, Hampton Jr. College, Florida A. & M. University and Roosevelt Junior College. The general theme of the meeting was "Social Responsibilities -- Service Beyond Self."

The Roosevelt Jr. College delegation included Valeria Stevens, Claudia Spradley, Lucy Timmons, Evelyn Wright, Bettye Goldwire and the sponsor, Mrs. C. B. Bridwell. For election of state officers each chapter was allowed 3 votes. All officers were elected by secret ballot. Two of our students were elected to office. Valeria Stevens, treasurer and Betty Goldwire, Chaplain.

MY "PATCH OF BLUE"

There's A Bit of sky across the street
Which I have learned to love,
One end of it rests on the house tops high,
The other on the heavens above.
It looks most beautiful at times
And has been such a comfort, too,
That when I look thro' my windowpane
I call it my "Patch of Blue."
When I think of God's great universe
With its vast expanse of sky,
And of those who can roam from sea to sea
Without a thought of why
This wondrous joy is given to them
By a God so kind and true,
I wonder if they are quite as glad
As I, for my "Patch of Blue."

I call it mine: God's gift to me
From September until June.
It heals my hurt; it warms my heart;
And I'm sure that very soon
The lesson that it teaches me
Will warm me thro' and thro';
For it seems as though God's blessed smile
Shines thro' my "Patch of Blue."

I've seen it when light, fleecy clouds
Went scurrying 'cross its face
And made that tiny bit of sky
Look like a bit of lace.
I've also seen the storm clouds burst,
And winds go rushing thro',
But I always knew that once again
I'd see my "Patch of Blue."

I've watched it when the wintry snows
Had hidden it from sight,
But I have known full well that soon

It would once more be bright.
When sunset drops her curtain down
She turns to golden hue
That little bit of lovely sky
That was my "Patch of Blue."

When I lie upon my bed at night,
With a heart full of pain and fear,
I think of the twinkling stars out there
That shine so bright and clear.
I think of the radiant, glorious moon
Shining the whole night thro',
And I know that the morning sun will bring
Once more my "Patch of Blue."

I've looked across that bit of sky
As the twilight hour drew near,
And thought of one in that "Great Beyond"
Who was to me most dear.
He was such a very little lad,
Only four years old,
When he passed the portals thro'
And he's still waiting for me there
Beyond my "Patch of Blue."

There are other dear ones over there
Whose journey here is o'er.
I shall see them sometime, somewhere,
At rest on the shining shore.

Dear Lord! Please help my life to be
So patient, kind and true
That when at last my race is run
I can cross my "Patch of Blue."

And then one day -- when I tried to look
I found I could not see,
In my despair I cried aloud,

"O God -- it cannot be
That I must nevermore enjoy
This precious, precious view,
That I must learn to do without
My little 'Patch of Blue.'"

I know not what's in store for me
Of sorrow, joy or pain;
I do not know when I can see
My bit of sky again.
But I'm sure God's love and mercy
Will lead me safely thro',
And in my very heart of hearts
He can put a "Patch of Blue."

Oh! Friend O' mine! Are you shut in?
Does your life seem hard to bear?
Does your heart grow sick with longing
For the joys you once could share?
"I'll go with you," saith the Master,
And his promises are true;
So We're sure that in His blessed arms
We'll find our "Patch of Blue."
